COL. WM. RALSTON.

—We had the pleasure the other day of meeting in this city our much esteemed friend, Mr. Ralston, the able editor of the Paducah Weekly Commercial. Col. Ralston, editor of this paper, was in the city for a few days, and he was very much interested in the state of affairs in this city. He was very much interested in the state of affairs in this city. He was very much interested in the state of affairs in this city.

South Carolina will have a great deal to answer for.

—Her disposition—we may say her determination—to kick up a row and break things has not only run the money out of the country and reduce the country to a state of anarchy, but has also ruined the local department of the newspapers. Before the palmetto demagogues got to cutting up in that way, it was comparatively easy to pick up a column or two of the best sort of local news every day, but now the only thing that can be done with a column of local news is to pick up a column of local news.

On Sunday afternoon last the police made a descent upon a house on Cedar street, near the Commercial Hotel, and captured about a dozen negroes engaged in gambling. The house was occupied by two negroes named Terry, who, together with their colored partners, were committed to the Work-House until yesterday morning, when the whole lot were brought up to the Recorder's Court and fined. The Recorder's Court was fined $5 each, and as some of them were slaves, their masters had to come down with the fine. Two of them were discharged. One of the Terry's was fined $50 and the other $9. It is to be presumed that these unfortunate colored individuals will hereafter eschew the gambling table, and endeavor to earn their pocket change by a more legitimate method.

We mentioned yesterday that a negro had been arrested for the murder of B. F. Swann, of Edgefield, some six or eight weeks since. We could not gather any of the particulars of the arrest.

We mentioned last week that a wagon on board for some point on the Nashville and Northern Railroad, had been loaded with large lot of shoes on the Charlotte Turnpike, about four miles from the city. A day or two ago, some of the shoes, and a parcel of hats, were found in a "shuck-pen" near to where the robbery was committed.

Com. SUTHERLAND and Capt. ISRAELMAN

of the Navy, it is understood, intend to resign if South Carolina secedes.

It is rumored that Gov. Hicks, of Maryland, has decided to call the State Legislature together.

The Theatre.

—The play which Mr. and Mrs. Florence are playing at the Nashville Theatre are above all others the very best just now to attract and please. When people are engaged as everybody now is, in talking politics and hard times all day, they don't care to go to the theatre at night to see a tragedy badly acted, but a good comedy well acted. It is not so much recreation that they need as it is amusement—something to laugh at and put them in good humor. The wretched scarcity of money, the prostration of business, the upturn of Southern financiers and Northern capitalists, the great political drama that is being played with such fearful earnestness upon the broad stage of the Union—make up a scene with quite enough of the tragic to satisfy the people, and when they turn from the actualities of life to spend an evening in watching its mimicry, they wish to see it lively, dashing and full of fun. Richard, Hamlet, Macbeth, Robinson and Dogan are the things when people are content and happy with plenty of money and no poor kin, but they are too somber and too serious for the political and financial crisis that is upon us. What would the people think if the manager to-night, or tomorrow night, it would throw a damper over the play-goers of this community from which they would not recover for six months, and a constellation of the brightest stars on the American stage could not draw any time during the rest of the season, a house sufficiently large to pay the gas bill. But there's Toodles and such—let us have Toodles and such, or the style of plays Mr. and Mrs. Florence are now giving us, and every body will come, and will not. Last night and night before we had O'Connell, Good Luck, Macbeth, As You Like It, O'Connell, Good Luck, Macbeth, As You Like It, O'Connell, Good Luck, Macbeth, As You Like It.

DEPARTED.

Poland, Cincinnati.

THEIR STATIONARY YESTERDAY

35 feet (large) on the Shoals. The new steamer Nashville left Cincinnati for this place Monday evening. The Cincinnati Enquirer of Sunday, makes the following remarks respecting the boat and her owners:

When years ago Captain Sidall commanded the steamer Nashville, having as his first mate, Captain P. K. Barclay, the steamer Nashville was a regular trade between this port and Nashville, leaving here every alternate Wednesday, and every day thereafter to the Shoals. Captain Sidall subsequently commanded the Colorado, a Steamer and Captain Barclay, on the Nashville, was introduced into the trade. Captain Barclay was promoted from engineer to the command of the Nashville. Captain Sidall took charge of the office. Then came the well-known steamer Savannah, followed by the Wendell, and the pride of the line, the Nashville, was introduced into the trade.
